

Application for Civil Legal Aid

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU TO KEEP

What you need to know about Civil legal aid

Legal aid is the government programme which pays for a lawyer to represent you if you cannot afford to. If you get legal aid, you may have to pay back some or all of it.

Civil legal aid is available for private disputes and non-criminal problems.

Your Application

What happens when you apply?

When you answer the questions and sign the form, you are confirming that the information you have given is accurate and complete. It is illegal to sign the form when you know something is not true or you have left out something important on purpose.

If you are not sure of the information needed to answer a question, give your best estimate, note on the form that it is an estimate, and provide the detail later.

You have to provide this information so we can make a fair decision about whether you can get legal aid, how much you may need to repay, and how you will make the repayments.

Your application is confidential. The personal information you provide to us is only used to process your application. This means we may check the information with others like Work and Income or your employer.

How will you know if you get legal aid?

You will be sent a letter telling you about our decision. If you do get legal aid, the letter will outline conditions you must meet, including repayments and a charge over property, which are explained below.

A decision is usually made within 15 working days of receiving a Civil legal aid application.

Your obligations

The information you provide must be accurate and honest. Legal aid can be withdrawn if incorrect information is provided. You may have to repay some or all of your legal aid. Signing the application form means you agree to this. You must keep up your repayments or legal aid may be withdrawn.

Repayments

How much you have to repay depends on your income and assets, the cost of your case, and whether you receive any settlement from your case.

You may have to start repaying right away. A repayment plan will be worked out based on the information you have provided us. If you do not keep up with the repayment plan, interest may be charged on what you owe and we can take further action to recover your debt.

If you have a problem paying your legal aid debt, tell the Debt Management Group on 0800 600 090. They can rearrange your repayment plan before any action is taken.

In some circumstances, your legal aid debt can be written off if you can't repay it.

You can ask for your legal aid to be stopped, but you may still have to repay some or all of the aid spent so far.

If you need financial advice about making your repayments, contact a Budgeting Service person — see the Yellow Pages.

Charge over property

If you have to repay some or all of your legal aid and the cost is more than $300, the Legal Services Commissioner may take a charge over property you own, which may include a house, land, or a vehicle. This can include property owned by your partner. A charge over property means that when the property is sold, your legal aid will be repaid before you receive money from the sale.

Change of situation

You must tell us if your contact details, financial details, employment status, or family circumstances change.

Costs and settlements

If you win your case and you are awarded ownership of property or payment towards the cost of your case, those awards may be used to repay your legal aid. If costs are awarded against you, we can meet the costs but you may have to pay us back. A repayment plan will be set up for you.

Your rights

Reconsideration

If you disagree with the decision made you may apply for a reconsideration using the reconsideration form on our website. For information about the grounds for reconsideration, the process and who to contact, go to www.justice.govt.nz.

Your application for reconsideration must be made within 20 working days from the date of notice of the decision. If you do not ask for a reconsideration, the decision is final.

Review

If you believe that the reconsideration decision is manifestly unreasonable, wrong in law or both, you can apply to the Legal Aid Tribunal (Tribunal) for a review. For information about the grounds for review, the review process, and how to obtain the Tribunal's Application for Review form, go to www.justice.govt.nz/tribunals/legal-aid-tribunal.

You must lodge your Application for Review with the Tribunal within 20 working days from the date of notice of the reconsideration decision. If you do not seek a review, the reconsideration decision is final. The reconsideration decision stands pending the outcome of any Tribunal review.

Money paid to your lawyer

Legal aid is paid directly to your lawyer for your case. You can ask us to examine the cost of your case if you think your lawyer has claimed for more time than they actually spent on the case, or claimed more expenses (disbursements) than they actually used. For a reconsideration or query about how much your lawyer is paid, write to the person who sent you the letter. The address is on the bottom of the letter.

Can you change your lawyer?

If you are not satisfied with your legal aid lawyer, try to talk to them about why you are not satisfied.

If that does not help, contact the legal aid office looking after your legal aid. If you have good reasons, and we agree, you can change your legal aid lawyer. It doesn't happen very often.

If you have a complaint about your lawyer, write to the Complaints Officer at the address on the bottom of a letter to you, or see the New Zealand Law Society complaints information at www.lawsociety.org.nz.

Where can you get more information?

You can get more information on legal aid at www.justice.govt.nz, or from a legal aid office, or from your lawyer. If you need to know more about the law in your case, ask your lawyer or a community law centre.
